

GLASS EMPTY, HALF FULL

Lyrics: Pamela Keeley and Niall Mc Grane

Music: Pamela Keeley and Phil Edwards

Demo sung by: Georgina Hagen

You can shine a light or cast a shadow

Embrace today, there's no promise of tomorrow

Yesterdays' gone and now is your moment to take

You can moan and groan, or look for the bright side

You can shut out the world, or step into the outside

Glass empty, half full, it's really your choice to make

Challenges come our way, sometimes blessings are disguised

What may appear bleak, could be the sun on your cheek, to tell you, you're not here to hide

So, embrace it, you can face it, you can make it,

It's your life.
