

I NEED TIME

Lyrics: Pamela Keeley, K. Ronan

Music: Pamela Keeley, Ronan Dooney, K. Ronan

Demo Sung By: Alex Sharpe

We are cut from a different cloth. I see that now, since you were caught.
Trust is gone, things can't be the same. It was just a lie, to you a game.
I was blinded by your cheating charm. Vulnerable you caused me harm.

I need time to fall out of love with you. To fall out of love with you. I need time.

I need time. Forget all my dreams of you. Accept that they won't come true. I need time.

I won't call. I won't write. I won't think about you ev'ry night.

If I call. If I write. I'm back where I started, again broken hearted.

I need time to fall out of love with you. I'll fall out of love with you. I'll take time.

INSTRUMENTAL

Now I know what I must do. Move on, Babe, it's long overdue.

I've had enough of what you do. I hate that you tease me. It's my heart.
I'll set it free!

I need time to fall out of love with you, I'll fall out of love with you.

Give me time.

I need time.

I'll take time.

I need time.
